RESPONSE TO OFFICE COMMUNICATION

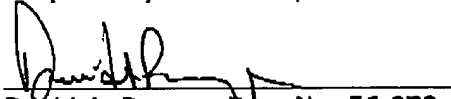

Dear Examiner:

I am in receipt of your telephone message of June 5, 2006, regarding a request for pages by the Printer. Attached to this Response are two Exhibits. Exhibit 1 is the language that should consist of page 230; Exhibit 2 is the language that should consist of page 335. The content is printed from our electronic version of the specification, and thus our pagination does not exactly match. I have reviewed the specification version available on PAIR to verify that the missing pages should be those that are enclosed.
